Disability Equality Statement

Enfield County School for Girls seeks to promote Disability Equality in a number of ways:

1. By raising and considering any issues relating to disability equality which affects students through the student forum 'The V.O.I.C.E.
2. By promoting an inclusive, supportive working environment for staff and students, free from discrimination and harassment on account of disability
3. By taking a proactive role with respect to supporting and including disabled students and staff in all areas of school life
4. By hosting events to mark Disability History Month (22nd Nov. – 22nd Dec. annually)
5. By supporting inclusive teaching, which respects the diversity of students
6. By the provision of helpful information and contacts to provide support to students and staff with disabilities, and to aid awareness of Disability issues
